Tamar

“...she is more righteous than I...” - Genesis 28:26

Sermon Notes: (there are no fill in the blank slides so you might need to pause and rewind in order to fill in these blanks)

Tamar, a woman that risked it all for a _____ .
Maybe, just maybe, that is exactly the type of woman that would be in the lineage of a God that chooses _____ in time and place to risk it all for the redemption of His _____ .

As we read the holy scriptures, the holy story of Tamar, I am reminded again, how different our cultures are. If we hadn't taken the time to understand Tamar's culture, we would have never understood _____ or how God was _____ her story (within her)

It is our responsibility to stop and _____ for how God is at _____
